CONFERENCE ON INDIAN CONSTITUTION

The IQAC cell of St.Aloysius Degree College organized a conference on 'Indian Constitution' on 20th November 2021. It was conducted in relation with the Indian Constitution Day which we celebrated on 26th November.

The conference was addressed by Principal Dr. Sr. Sagaya Mary who spoke about the atrocities that happens in the society and the role of youth in standing up against such issues. The chief guest and speaker for the day was Adv. Vasanth Aditya - Karnataka High Court, Author Documentarian led the session and enlightened our students about the importance of the constitution in democracy.

He highlighted that the constitution is not hindering the rights of people; rather it limits the government's power on people.

Understanding Democracy

He reiterated that the constitution envisages power from the people. The speaker showcased the reality of our society in terms of access to resources through interactive simulations and the students participated in a mock election which helped to understand the functioning of political parties in a democracy.

The talk was followed by a vigorous question and answer session where students raised questions ranging from the frequent use of UAPAs to abolition of farm laws.

The conference wound up with the National Anthem led by the College choir.

PARTICIPATION IN SEMINAR ON HUMAN RIGHTS

The staff and students of the college participated in a seminar on Human Rights, UPR and UDHR organized by SICHREM at Indian Social Institute ,Benson Town. Dr.Kanishka was the resource person for the seminar. The resource person highlighted Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR) as a milestone document in the history of human rights. Drafted by representatives with different legal and cultural backgrounds from all regions of the world, the Declaration was proclaimed by the United Nations General Assembly in Paris on 10 December 1948 (General Assembly resolution 217 A) as a common standard of achievements for all peoples and all nations. It sets out, for the first time, fundamental human rights to be universally protected and it has been translated into over 500 languages. The UDHR is widely recognized as having inspired, and paved the way for, the adoption of more than seventy human rights treaties, applied today on a permanent basis at global and regional levels (all containing references to it in their preambles). The speaker also drew the understanding of the participants through a group discussion. He also elaborated on Human Rights as a career option. The session was very useful for the participants.

VALEDICTORY PROGRAM FOR HUMAN RIGHTS WEEK OBSERVATION

The valedictory program was organized at Indian Social Institute. The Chief Guest was Dr. Aditya Sondhi, Former Additional Advocate General of Karnataka. The program was presided over by Dr. Rev. Joseph Xavier SJ, Director of Indian Social Institute. The special Invitees were Ms. JaveriaKittur, Women's Wing JIH, Bangalore North, Mr. G Thiraviyam, Catalyst, Forth Wave Foundation, Ms. Sana Suman, Co- Founder, Swatanthra Organization Mr. Stanley David, and the students from St. Aloysius also presented a song on Human rights, performed dance drama and mime. The winners of various competitions were also awarded. Human Rights week observation was the best example for Networking and collaboration.

WORKSHOP ON GROUP DYNAMICS

On July 13th,2022, a Group dynamics session was organized for the students of Social Work in collaboration with the Indian Social Institute. Fr. Joye James the Director of ISI and team were the resource persons for the program. Group dynamics deals with the attitudes and behavioral patterns of a group. It can be used as a means for problem-solving, teamwork, and to become more innovative and productive as an organization. The concept of group dynamics will also provide you with the strengths, success factors and measures along with other professional tools.

In the beginning of the session a lecture was given to the students on the theme and then activities were conducted. The term 'group dynamics' means the study of forces within a group. Since human beings have an innate desire for belonging to a group, group dynamism is bound to occur. In an organization or in a society, we can see groups, small

SOCIAL CONCERN

VOICE OF DISSENTS ARE SUPPRESSED

On 13th July 2021, Social Science Association of St. Aloysius Degree College and Centre for Post Graduate studies organized a Memorial Day service in honor of Fr. Stan Swamy, a human right activist. Stanislaus Lourduswamy (26th April 1937 - 5th July 2021), popularly known as Stan Swamy, was an Indian Roman Catholic priest, a member of the Jesuit order, and a tribal rights activist for several decades. He was the oldest person to be accused of terrorism in India. On 8th October 2020, Fr. Stan was arrested and charged by the National Investigation Agency under the Unlawful Activities (Prevention) Act, for his alleged role in the 2018 Bhima Koregaon violence and links to the Communist Party of India (Maoist). Fr. Stan was suffering from Parkinson's disease and had requested bail on medical grounds, which was rejected multiple times. While incarcerated, his health deteriorated and he died of COVID-19 complications on 5th July 2021.

The day started with the lighting of the Indian lamp marking the events of the day followed by the memorial prayer service in which Scripture from three major religions were read on the theme of justice, truth and love accompanied by the melody by the choir.
