On 8/10/2020 the Times of India group in collaboration with the British council had taken initiative to conduct free Spoken English classes exclusively for our college under the guidance of Mr. Sunil and Mr. Sathish who played key roles in conducting classes. It was a great learning platform for our college students to understand the basics of English language. The students had regular spoken English classes from Monday to Friday from 2- 3 in the college premises. The students took active part in the classes that dealt even with many activities which helped each one to enhance the quality of learning spoken English. It was a course for 6 months and all the students got a good training, many developed good communication skills as well. It was a great opportunity that was introduced by Our Former Principal Sr. Philomena Cardoza who wanted the students to get the best and worked tirelessly in bringing in the best courses for the institution and, The Spoken English Course was one of them. Both the Faculties were very kind enough to make sure the classes' were taken- regularly and wanted the students to gain the best and did all that was possible to complete the certificate 11 course successfully. The Certificates are issued to the students who attended the course regularly. The Course at the outset was a learning platform for our students and very productive. Thanks to the team of Times of India for letting our students gain from them. Karan Alistair Kishore Department of English& Commerce

Report

‘When I have fears that I may cease to be before my pen has glean'd my teeming brain.’ John Keats On 25th June, 2021 - The Department of English (Mrs. Laly Mathew, Ms. Maria and Mr. Karan), organized a - Poetry Recitation Competition in view of the Celebration of the Bicentenary Year of John Keats. John Keats - a prominent English poet, in the 2nd generation of Romantic poets. He always accentuated extreme emotion through emphasis on natural imagery. Although prolific during his short career, and now was one of the most studied and admired British Poets, his reputation rests in a small body of work. The students of I, II and III BA, participated in the competition, each introducing their sonnets and poems from the view of John Keats, and beautifully showcasing their recitation skills. The first round of the competition was held on the 25th and the final round was conducted on 26th June, 2021 by the Department of English along with the student coordinators (Kevin, Sr. Remolin, Sr. Dolly, Divya Kamal, Vijay Bharath and John Britto in the virtual presence of our three Judges - Mr. Karan Alistair, Mrs. Laly Mathew and Ms. Maria Leena. The Competition, not only celebrated the occasion, and brought out the hidden talents of our students, but it gave a quality insight in the works of John Keats' and his way of viewing the world and it didn't allow the competition to be a mere competition, but a great learning experience
