

The College Anthem

*"LUCEAT LUX VESTRA"
(Let Your Light Shine Forth)*

*Let your light shine forth!
Clear and clean and bright
Like a beacon thro the gloom
That wells up from the night*

*Let your light shine forth!
With the glow of knowledge and truth
Feed from the book of wisdom
A flame with the fire of youth*

*Ch: Let it Shine Lord Shine
Lord Let your light shine forth Shine
Lord Shine Lord,
Let your Light Shine through us*

*Let your light shine forth!
For one gleam how many have striven!
It is yours and tomorrow your brother's!
Clasp firm the torch God-given.*

*Let your light shine forth!
But it described from ever so far
It shall beckon and a star
As the wanderer by a star*

*Ch: Let it Shine Lord Shine Lord
Let your light shine forth
Shine Lord Shine lord,
Let your Light Shine through us
Shanthi Shanthi
Peace be to everyone
To everyone
May I be the peace to everyone*

PRAYER TO ST. ALOYSIUS

Dear St. Aloysius Gonzaga, you were a faithful follower of God. You served God by risking your life in the service of others. You were heroic in serving the plague-stricken. You gave your life to save other victims of plague with generosity and love. Help us students of St. Aloysius Degree College & Centre for Post Graduate Studies to imitate you by becoming men and women for others. Show us how to harness our energies and to use them for the service of others and for the greater glory of God. Give us graces from above and strengthen us to make our lives fruitful in service.

St. Aloysius Gonzaga SJ
(1568-1591)
Patron of the College

St. Aloysius Gonzaga, SJ (1568–1591)

St. Aloysius Gonzaga, the Patron of the College and the Patron of Youth, despite his exposure to a “society of fraud, dagger, poison and lust” decided to be different. His decision to be faithful to his conscience more than his family, friends and relatives changed the destiny of his life. Aloysius Gonzaga was the firstborn in a powerful Italian noble family. As a son of a princely family, he grew up in royal courts and army camps. His father wanted Aloysius to be a military hero. At the age of seven he experienced a profound spiritual awakening. At the age of nine he came from his home town of Castiglione to Florence to be educated and by the age of eleven he was teaching poor children. When he was 13 years old, he traveled with his parents and the Empress of Austria to Spain and acted as a page in the court of Philip II. The more Aloysius saw of court life, the more disillusioned he became, seeking relief in the experience of God. To serve people in distant land and offer his life in service to God and the needy, he decided to enter the Jesuit Order. When he communicated that decision to his parents, there was opposition. Then began a four-year contest with his father. Eminent Churchmen and Laypeople were pressed into service to persuade him to remain in his “normal” life of wealth and aristocracy. Aloysius was determined and finally he prevailed and was allowed to renounce his right to succession and was received into the Jesuit novitiate. After completion of his introduction of two years to be a Jesuit, St. Aloysius spent four years in the study of philosophy. In 1591, a plague struck Rome. The Jesuits opened a hospital of their own with several of them rendering service. Because he nursed patients, washing them and making their beds, Aloysius caught the disease himself. A fever persisted after his recovery and he was so weak he could scarcely rise from bed. Yet, he maintained his great discipline of life of prayer and service. Three months later, Aloysius developed the symptoms of the plague and died on June 21, 1591 at the age of 23. His was a peaceful death and he went to meet God whom he had joyfully, generously and happily served with single-mindedness. Aloysius Gonzaga was canonized in 1726 and named Patron of all students in 1729. His feast is celebrated on 21st June.

The function of education is to teach one to think intensively and to think critically. Intelligence plus character – that is the goal of true education.

ALOYSIAN EDUCATION

Caring for the whole person

An important principle of Aloysian education is care for the whole person. St. Aloysius Degree College is a place where staff members are aware that a student is not a sponge to soak up information. The philosophy of education here places a student's humanity first, creating a personalized educational environment. It is through caring and compassion the college becomes a human community. Students are expected to care and establish an environment of caring in the campus.

Discovering Talents

The college encourages the students to discover their talents through a curriculum that includes a variety of classes. Students are expected to gain mastery of their major subjects but are also required to explore their talents by participating in Co-Curricular activities, effective communication, inspiring leadership and creativity. In classes you are expected to participate in discussions, debates and presentations.

Becoming a person for others

The ultimate goal for a graduate of St. Aloysius is to be an agent of change, to become a person of concern, compassion and conscience. The example and model that is offered to all students is the life of St. Aloysius who lived for God and served those in pain and suffering. He concretely expressed his love to God through his actions of serving humans. An Aloysian is expected to light a candle and stand up for one's convictions and conscience and bring light to the lives of others.

Engaging with the world

Our Education must link us with the outside world and help us to relate to the issues of our surrounding and the world. Students and staff members are expected to be aware of local and global concerns and engage with the issues to become citizens for change. The issues that affect humanity are climate change, consumerism, violence, injustice, caste and racial discrimination, global warming and others. By engaging with these issues, we will be able to make a difference.

Enlivening Centuries Old Catholic Tradition

We aim to provide an education that is geared at the formation of persons, who will change the world for the better. It is this ideal that remains the core of the mission of St. Aloysius College. Education here is to lead us to lead others in society for a fuller life and make our contribution to national life.

The Union Cabinet approved the National Education Policy in the year 2020, making way for large scale, transformational reforms in both school and higher education sectors. The new policy aims to pave the way for transformational reforms in school and higher education systems in the country. This policy will replace the 34-year-old National Policy on Education (NPE), 1986. This is the first education policy of the 21st century and replaces the thirty-four-year-old National Policy on Education (NPE), 1986. Built on the foundational pillars of Access, Equity, Quality, Affordability and Accountability, this policy is aligned to the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development and aims to transform India into a vibrant knowledge society and global knowledge superpower by making both school and college education more holistic, flexible, multidisciplinary, suited to 21st century needs and aimed at bringing out the unique capabilities of each student.

9. Internet facility/computer assistance is provided for academic purpose.
10. All books borrowed from the bank must be returned in good condition at the end of the academic year.
11. The College offers photo copying facility for the staff and students at a nominal fee. The orders could be given to the counter in the library meant for the purpose.

STAFF-STUDENT RAPPORT

The college has a competent, compassionate and capable team of teachers. They are placed at your service. Do meet them not only on matters of your academics but even on matters of your personal lives. You will find in them exceptional mentors.

They are your guides and mentors. When faced with personal and emotional problems do not run away from them or allow to be enslaved by them. Talking over with teachers could help. Many of our staff members have undergone training to help you not only with your academic difficulties but also with your personal and emotional problems.

You may always approach them for guidance. The Manager and the Principal of the College are also at your service. You could approach them after class hours.

PARENTS AND GUARDIANS

To serve you better we need to be in touch with your parents. The purpose is not to police or discipline but to help you to grow as an adult. While you need to be accountable to your parents the college wishes to partner with your parents informing you. It is in keeping with this concept of 'partnership' in education that the principal invites the parents of students to discuss with them the performance of their son/ daughter. You will be intimated about it and every parent is requested to make it possible to attend it. The Parents are also recommended to meet the Principal and the Mentors to ascertain from them the conduct and progress of their wards. The College welcomes suggestions from parents and well-wishers.

ACADEMIC EVALUATION

Academic evaluation is an important administrative function to ensure that students are learning what the academic departments intend for them to learn. That is, assessing student's achievement allows departments to examine how students benefit from the various courses that comprise the Degree Programs. Academic programs and services are periodically evaluated to be certain that all students are learning the core of the major field material.

Student Evaluation

As mentioned earlier there will be a test of 90 minutes after six weeks of the semester and a preparatory exam of 3 hours a month before the semester examinations. To be eligible to write the final exams students will have to clear the college test and the preparatory examination.

- One third of the portions have to be completed prior to the first test. Three fourth of the portion should be covered prior to the preparatory examination.

- The HOD has to organize the valuation of answer scripts. Answer scripts can also be exchanged for valuation.
- Answer sheets have to be returned to the students within Seven days of the tests/exams.
